Chicago Fire Falls 2-1 to LA Galaxy at Dignity Health Sports Park

The Chicago Fire Soccer Club opened its 2019 MLS regular season with a hard-fought 2-1 loss against the LA Galaxy before 25,866 fans at Dignity Health Sports Park on Saturday evening. Forward CJ Sapong, who recently joined the Fire, scored the game's opening goal in the first half, tallying his first goal for his new Club.

Five players made their debut for the Fire in Saturday's match, including goalkeeper David Ousted, defender Marcelo, midfielders Przemyslaw Frankowski and Cristian Martinez, and Sapong. Saturday's contest marked Marcelo and Frankowski's first appearance in MLS league play, with both players joining the Fire ahead of the 2019 regular season.

The Fire took the lead in the 49th minute of play when Sapong intercepted a misplaced pass in the final third. Running toward goal, Sapong rounded goalkeeper David Bingham and carefully placed his final effort into the back of the net.

The Galaxy managed to equalize in the 68th minute of play when a cross into the box found defender Daniel Steres, who nodded the ball into the back of the net from close range. With 10 minutes remaining in the match, the Galaxy took the lead when the ball was deflected to the back post toward forward Zlatan Ibrahimovic, who was able to convert from close range.

Next up, the Fire will host Orlando City SC at SeatGeek Stadium on Saturday, March 9. Beginning at 12:00 p.m. CT, the Men in Red's home opener will be broadcast live on ESPN+ and transmitted locally on Univision Radio WRTO AM 1200.

Match notes:

Forward CJ Sapong scored his first career goal for the Fire and the 57th goal of his MLS career. Four players made their first MLS starts with the Fire, including goalkeeper David Ousted, defender Marcelo, midfielder Przemyslaw Frankowski and Sapong.

Saturday's match marked the Fire's 44th regular-season contest against the Galaxy, dating back to 1998.

With Sapong's goal, the Fire have scored 50 goals against the Galaxy since beginning play in MLS in 1998.

Scoring Summary:

CHI - Sapong (1) (unassisted) 49'

LA - Steres (1) (Alvarez) 68'

FC Dallas 1, New England Revolution 1

Carles Gil opened his Major League Soccer account as the New England Revolution rallied to play FC Dallas to a 1-1 draw Saturday at Toyota Stadium.

Michael Barrios struck FC Dallas' first goal of the 2019 season in the 13th minute as the Revs troubles on counterattacks continue.

Dominique Badji latched onto a ball out of the back by Reggie Cannon, held it up and slipped a pass to Barrios, who ran at three New England defenders, cut outside and scored low inside the far post.

Gil leveled for the Revs in the 57th minute. Antonio Delamea got on the end of a lobbed cross by Jalil Anibaba and headed down to Gil, who settled before netting the equalizer.

Anibaba was a late replacement in the Revs starting XI for Michael Mancienne, who picked up a pregame injury.

Goals

13' — DAL — Michael Barrios

57' — NE — Carles Gil

Three Things

THE BIG PICTURE: The Revs will be the happier team, having lost a key starter in pregame and trailing, 1-0, at halftime. FC Dallas, though, won't feel too hard done in Luchi Gonzalez's first game in charge.

MOMENT OF THE MATCH: It's all about Gil's leveler. Delamea does well to rise up and win the header and Gil takes a subtle touch before a clinical finish.

MAN OF THE MATCH: Anibaba didn't expect to start, but when Mancienne picked up that pregame knock, he was forced into action and performed pretty well on the defensive side and assisted on Gil's tying goal.

Orlando City SC 2, New York City FC 2

After waiting more than an hour to get on the field, Nani and Dom Dwyer combined to help lift Orlando City to a stirring 2-2 draw against New York City FC on Saturday at Orlando City Stadium.

The pair entered on either side of 69 minutes as subs following surprising omissions from the starting XI, then combined down the left to set up Tesho Akindele's 75th minute equalizer. That goal followed Chris Mueller's 59th-minute strike on a free kick to cut the deficit in half after the hosts trailed by two at halftime.

Ebenezer Ofori opened the scoring with a blistering low strike from distance and Alexander Ring doubled NYCFC's lead just before the break when he finished off a devastating pass from Cityzen debutant Alexandru Mitrita.

Goals

13 - NYC - Ebenezer Ofori
45 - NYC - Alex Ring
59' - ORL - Chris Mueller
75' - ORL - Tesho Akindele

Three Things

THE BIG PICTURE: Orlando City coach James O'Connor won only two league matches after taking over last season, and took a big risk and surprised everyone by opening 2019 with a squad that left out Nani, Dwyer and others. At halftime, it looked like appeared it had backfired, perhaps warming his seat in the process. Instead, his late star subs rescued a point.

MOMENT OF THE MATCH: His debut as Orlando's newest Designated Player came later than nearly everyone at Orlando City Stadium would've expected, but when Nani finally made his entrance in the 70th minute, the roar that greeted the Portuguese former Manchester United star was deafening.

MAN OF THE MATCH: Dwyer was equally important as Nani in the buildup to the equalizer, and nearly created a chance for a go-ahead penalty kick, only for referee Baldomero Toledo to decide there was not a clear and obvious handball following a Video Review.

Philadelphia Union 1, Toronto FC 3

Michael Bradley stepped up to hand Toronto FC all three points in an action-packed season opener against the Philadelphia Union. The US international midfielder scored on either side of halftime start TFC on their way a 3-1 win, spoiling the debut of new Union star Marco Fabian, who scored his team's lone goal.

TFC got their first big chance of the game from the penalty spot in the 32nd minute. After a highlight-reel save from Andre Blake on TFC's Nick DeLeon, Auro's follow-up shot was blocked by Kai Wagner, only for referee Nima Saghafi to whistle for a penalty. Jonathan Osorio stepped up, but Blake played the hero again, saving the Canadian midfielder's tame effort.

Bradley would get TFC their goal in first-half stoppage time, though, arriving late to finish a simple chance from Auro's cutback. The veteran midfielder made it two for himself and TFC just after the hour mark, slamming home a loose ball after Laurent Ciman's cross ricocheted out towards the penalty spot.

Fabian would net his first official goal for the Union from 12 yards out after Osorio was whistled for a handball, but Toronto FC were able to ride out a tense final spell highlighted by Laurent Ciman's goal-line save, and iced the game via DeLeon's stoppage-time effort.

Goals

45+3' – TOR – Michael Bradley
62' – TOR – Michael Bradley
73' – PHI – Marco Fabian
90+3' – TOR – Nick DeLeon

Three Things

THE BIG PICTURE: TFC will take a lot more from this one than Philadelphia

so early in the season. The Union certainly have some things to work on, but after TFC's disastrous 2018 and elimination from the Concacaf Champions League, there were big questions being raised about the future of the 2017 champs. This result certainly doesn't put those questions to bed, but such a composed road performance shows that the Reds might still have what it takes to contend in the East.

MOMENT OF THE MATCH: Bradley's second goal proved the decisive goal a tightly-contested, tightly-officiated match, but it was Ciman's goal line save that preserved the three points for Toronto. With the Union having pulled one back already, they very nearly equalized following a mad scramble, only for Ciman to save the day with a sliding clearance at the very last second:

MAN OF THE MATCH: Credit to Michael Bradley for his all-action performance. He put in some stiff tackles to put the Union off their game, and nailed two composed finishes to hand his team a morale-boosting win. Hat tip to DeLeon and Auro for standout performances of their own.

San Jose Earthquakes 1, Montreal Impact 2

Matías Almeyda will have to wait at least another week for his first win as San Jose Earthquakes head coach, as a visiting Montreal Impact side left Avaya Stadium with a 2-1 win on Saturday night.

Montreal's starting lineup featured three newcomers, but it was the old guard who got the ball rolling. Off a short corner kick, Ignacio Piatti, 34, dribbled along the endline and rifled past Argentine goalkeeper Daniel Vega to make it 1-1 in the 29th minute.

The game tilted the Impact's way from there, with Saphir Taider scoring the eventual game-winner in the 44th minute. He ghosted to the back post, volleying home a bending, precise cross from center back Zakaria Diallo, who missed all of last season with an Achilles tendon injury.

Despite the loss, San Jose got the scoring underway in the 11th minute via Swedish midfielder Magnus Eriksson, when he picked out a corner from the top of the 18-yard box.

Chris Wondolowski, one strike shy of tying Landon Donovan's all-time record for regular-season goals in MLS (145), was held off the scoresheet.

Goals

11' – SJ – Magnus Eriksson

29' – MTL – Ignacio Piatti

44' – MTL – Saphir Taïder

Three Things

THE BIG PICTURE: With a new coach comes a new system, and it seems as though San Jose is still learning all those intricacies under Almeyda. Newcomers such as left back Marcos López and winger Cristian Espinoza had bright moments, though. As for Montreal, they made their limited chances count and buckled down defensively when the Earthquakes threw numbers forward.

MOMENT OF THE MATCH: The finish to make it 2-1 was smooth, but the entry ball from Zakaria Diallo was quality. The Frenchman's vision and finesse looked every part of an experienced playmaker, not a center back.

MAN OF THE MATCH: Saphir Taider had a sneaky-good 2018 season with seven goals and eight assists. Early into 2019, it looks like the Algerian midfielder is picking up right where he left off. Taider had a goal and an assist, including a game-winner as first-half stoppage time neared.

Houston Dynamo 1, Real Salt Lake 1

In a match that eventually showcased some of the high-tempo offense both teams are capable of — delivering offsetting goals by Albert Rusnak and Mauro Manotas — the Houston Dynamo and Real Salt Lake dueled to a 1-1 draw in the season opener for both teams on Saturday at BBVA Compass Stadium.

Initially, the Dynamo's pace appeared to keep RSL on edge, as they drew yellow cards from three different RSL players in the first 27 minutes. But the visitors were able to wrest control of the match late in the first half. Corey Baird, making a marauding run down the left flank, sent a pass in front of goal that Rusnak pounced on to capture the lead.

Both teams came out of the halftime break displaying more overall offensive savvy, and the Dynamo were able to equalize in the 62nd minute, when Adam Lundkvist sent in a cross that Manotas nearly turned on and directed into goal. It appeared that Boniek Garcia delivered the Dynamo's first lead of the season with a 76th minute strike, but it was ruled offside. New Dynamo d-mid Matias Vera made things a little more tense for the home faithful, getting sent off for his second yellow in the 81st minute, but they were able to hang on to the draw despite the man disadvantage.

Goals

40' – RSL – Albert Rusnak

62' – HOU – Mauro Manotas

Three Things

THE BIG PICTURE: For RSL, a road result against a conference opponent is a positive start to the season, setting them up for next Saturday's home opener. For the Dynamo, it was a physical game in which Albert Elis in particular was bumped, bodied, and fouled while putting in a full shift — not optimal given that the first leg of the Dynamo's Concacaf Champions League match against Tigres is looming Tuesday. Vera, with his two yellow cards, won't be available for next Saturday's match against Montreal Impact, to add to squad rotation woes already beginning for Houston.

MOMENT OF THE MATCH: RSL looked as if they might have answered Manotas' equalizer with a go-ahead goal in the 65th minute, but Joe Willis stretched out and snatched a dangerous Aaron Herrera cross that Jefferson Savarino would have surely smashed home to change the complexion of the match:

MAN OF THE MATCH: Rusnak and Manotas are vital to their teams' respective 2019 fortunes, and opening their accounts on Saturday is a good, positive, encouraging start that could propel them to the playoffs.

Colorado Rapids 3, Portland Timbers 3

Andre Shinyashiki struck deep into second-half stoppage time to lift the 10-man Colorado Rapids to a 3-3 draw against the Portland Timbers on the snow-blanketed pitch at Dick's Sporting Goods Park on a wintry Saturday afternoon in Commerce City.

The hosts raced out in front in the 16th minute as Kei Kamara opened his account by tapping in a Kellyn Acosta cross. Dillon Serna played Acosta behind and the U.S. international split a pair of defenders before sending his low ball across the edge of the six-yard box.

Diego Valeri leveled just before the half-hour mark when he followed his own saved penalty kick and slotting past Tim Howard. The equalizer came after the Timbers had a goal David Guzman called back due to offside following Video Review and defender Axel Sjoberg was sent off on a straight red for denial of a goalscoring opportunity for handling the ball.

As conditions continued to deteriorate, Sebastian Blanco put Portland in front in the first minute of first-half stoppage time, latching onto a Valeri corner and slipping a glancing header inside the far post.

Benny Feilhaber scored his first goal for the Rapids one minute after halftime, following up his first blocked attempt with a sliding effort that evaded Jeff Attinella.

The Timbers regained their lead 20 minutes later when a sliding Deklan Wynne deflected Andy Polo's cross into his own net. But Shinyashiki provided the late heroics on his Rapids debut, tapping in a rebound inside the six-yard box

Goals

16' — COL — Kei Kamara
 29' — POR — Diego Valeri
 45'+1' — POR — Sebastian Blanco
 46' — COL — Benny Feilhaber
 66' — POR — Deklan Wynne (OG)
 90'+4' — COL — Andre Shinyashiki

Three Things

THE BIG PICTURE: Can you see the Big Picture through all that snow? It's a winning draw for the Rapids, who were reduced to 10 men and trailed late in the second half. Tough two points dropped for the Timbers, but maybe worse if Guzman is seriously injured from slipping on the snow and appearing to hurt his groin.

MOMENT OF THE MATCH: It's got to be the late equalizer by Shinyashiki, the rookie who came off the bench to score his first MLS goal in dramatic fashion.

MAN OF THE MATCH: Can it be the fans who braved the conditions at Dick's Sporting Goods Park, including a dude who was bare-chested at the final whistle? Barring that, it's Shinyashiki for the reasons above.

Seattle Sounders 4, FC Cincinnati 1

FC Cincinnati have arrived, but Jordan Morris is back.

The forward struck for a brace, his first goals since August, 2017, to lift the Seattle Sounders to a 4-1 win, spoiling FC Cincy's inaugural MLS match Saturday night at CenturyLink Field.

Leonardo Bertone scored the first goal in FC Cincinnati's MLS history, a stunning full volley in the 13th minute that silenced the raucous Rave Green faithful.

Kelvin Leerdam leveled in the 27th minute, an easy tap-in after goalkeeper Przemyslaw Tyton spilled a Nico Lodeiro shot targeted for the far post.

Morris followed six minutes later with the go-ahead goal, receiving a terrific through ball from Lodeiro and his attempt deflected in off FC Cincy defender Nick Hagglund.

Morris, who has fought back from a hamstring injury that limited him in 2017 and an torn ACL that wiped out entire 2018 MLS season, netted his second two minutes before halftime. On a well worked counter attack, Victor Rodriguez slipped the ball to Morris, who buried his shot into the top corner of the net.

Raul Ruidiaz put the finishing touches on the lopsided win with his first goal of the year three minutes from full time.

Goals

13' — FCC — Leonardo Bertone
 27' — SEA — Kelvin Leerdam
 33' — SEA — Jordan Morris
 43' — SEA — Jordan Morris
 87' — SEA — Raul Ruidiaz

Three Things

THE BIG PICTURE: Bertone's goal was brilliant, but obviously there's work to do, especially on the defensive side of the ball. But it's just Game 1 for FC Cincinnati. Meanwhile, it's been a long time coming for Morris, who got a deserved standing ovation in his first league game since Sept. 2017.

MOMENT OF THE MATCH: This isn't just the moment of the match, but a moment that will go down in FC Cincinnati lore.

MAN OF THE MATCH: Lodeiro the maestro deserves some nods, as does Rodriguez, but it has to be Morris, who opened his account and his season in magnificent fashion.
